Acknowledgments

Unfortunately, APA guidelines do not permit us to acknowledge the editor and reviewers in the article's Author Note. Nevertheless, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to Dr. Scott Tonidandel, who served as the Action Editor, and the anonymous reviewers of the Journal of Applied Psychology for their thoughtful and constructive feedback throughout the review process.

Their suggestions not only improved the rigor and clarity of our research but also inspired additional analyses and theoretical insights that might never have occurred to us without their guidance. We are deeply grateful for their valuable intellectual contributions to this work.
